<This is the index made by 'a gentleman deceased' for his copy of the first edition. It was printed as part of the second edition (which is, as nearly as was possible, page for page the same as the first). It was also issued separately, in case people might want to insert it into copies of the first edition (Gough 1780:442–3); whether anyone bothered to do that I do not know. – C.F. May 2011.>
